

I enjoy satellite radio and rely on it's localized traffic broadcast to save me time. I did not and will not listen to any local radio's traffic broadcast as the content is minimal and only provides a 5 second introduction to commercials. I PAY for satellite radio content and welcome competition from other PAID services not from the public airwaves where I do not have a content choice.